CONNECTED IN SERVICE!

Hello everyone,

Have you been enjoying the Olympic Games as much as I have? I have to admit it—I'm an Olympic junkie. I look in the paper every morning to see what's on the schedule for that night. I program my DVR on the nights that I can't be home to watch, and I make sure that I'm up early to watch the coverage on the morning news programs before I go to work. I almost didn't go to middle school camp because it would mean missing the opening ceremonies. I especially like to learn about the athletes themselves. I like to know where they come from and who their families are. I love the stories of dedication and sacrifice—hard work and determination. And after they achieve their goals at the Olympic Games, I love to watch them stand on the medal podium and smile, cry, and sing as the national anthems are played and the flags are raised. Hard work paying off—dreams realized. Sacrifice born of love.

I've been trying to put myself there and figure out which event I would like to win a medal in, and I think I've finally figured it out. I've considered a few and I know some that I don't want to try. I mean after all, downhill skiing is too fast and dangerous (and you have to wear those skin tight spandex suits), ice skating is way too stressful with all of those triple Axels and Lutz's and such (and once again there is the wardrobe issue) and bobsled and luge—well those two sports are for just straight-up crazy people. Then there's snowboarding, and ski jumping, and well you get the picture. So I've chosen... curling. First and foremost, you get to play inside where it's warm. Second, all of the people seem quiet and relaxed—and third, you get to wear regular shirts and really baggy pants with crazy colorful patterns (if you're from Norway). The best part is, that I have been training to be on the curling team all of my life. Okay, what's the most crucial position on the team? The sweeper! I have raised two kids, I have two large hairy dogs, and I live on a dirt road—believe me, I know how to sweep! If I'd only known about this earlier in life—who knows where my sweeping dreams would have led me.

As a parent, when I watch the games, I always think about the mothers and fathers there in the stands watching, praying, and hoping that their child will win whatever race they're running, and then afterwards, either rejoicing with them in their victory, or consoling them in their defeat. Almost always when interviewed later, the athletes will thank their families and their coaches for getting them where they are, because they know without a doubt that they couldn't have gotten there without them.

Our Heavenly Father is closely watching as we, His children, run our races—praying and hoping that we will run them well. But not from the stands, thank goodness. Always He is running with us. Skiing down the terrifying hills, and catching us when we fall. Controlling us when we are traveling too fast in the wrong direction, and maybe even sweeping us out of our comfort zones if we get too warm or comfortable. At different times in our lives He will be either rejoicing with us in victory, or comforting us in defeat. But always—always, He is cheering us on and waiting at the finish line.

Hebrews 12: 1-3 “Therefore, since we are surrounded by such a great cloud of witnesses, let us throw off everything that hinders and the sin that so easily entangles, and let us run with perseverance the race marked out for us. Let us fix our eyes on Jesus, the author and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy set before him endured the cross, scorning its shame, and sat down at the right hand of the throne of God. Consider him who endured such opposition from sinful men, so that you will not grow weary and lose heart”.

If there were S2S Olympic medals that I could drape over all of your necks, you would all get gold medals in caring and encouragement, dedication and love. Thank you for running the race so well—none of us would be anywhere without each other.

So, do not grow weary. Do not lose heart. Keep your eyes on Jesus—loving father, dedicated coach, and the best cheerleader ever—yes...even for all of us curlers out there.

Warmest Regards,

Terri Owen
